Ever dream you could go to an amazing tasting where you would learn about the world's best spirits, cocktails and wines? Where the host encourages you to try a little something from the rarest bottles on his bar – whether wine or spirits – AND he has trays of the most delectable specialty cocktails for you to sip and savor? That dream becomes reality when the second annual ULTIMATE BLAST consumer, media and trade tasting event returns this fall to New York City. Guests can enjoy learning about the finest products the beverage alcohol world offers at a high-spirited party in a nightclub-like atmosphere. Many of the beverages at Ultimate Blast are UBC Chairman's Trophy winners and finalists from the trio of Ultimate Beverage Challenges held earlier this year.

Tickets for Ultimate Blast are available now. VIP tickets cost $175.00 each; entrance at 5:30pm; General Admission tickets cost $125.00 each; entrance at 6:30pm. The Ultimate Blast ends at 9:30pm. Those who act fast can take advantage of the 30% off Advance Purchase Discount available until September 15, which brings VIP tickets to $122.50 each and General tickets to $87.50 each
