Ultimate Cocktail Tasting Hits Midtown

Cocktail connoisseurs, get ready to flock to Midtown on October 15. The date marks the first-ever Ultimate Cocktail, Spirits & Wine Blast, being held at the Marriott Marquis Times Square. At this walk-around shindig, you'll have the chance to knock back classic cocktails like the Negroni and Aviation, mixed up by some of the city's best bartenders. If straight-up is more your style, you can also sample spirits in a number of lounges that will be set up on site. It's not all about the sipping, however, as there is an educational component to the event that includes seminars by folks like Gary Regan, who will talk about organic spirits and mixology. The tasting runs from 6:30–10 PM, and tickets are available here. Better hurry, because they're discounted ($75 vs. $90) if you order by September 30.
